

THE FORTY - SECOND GENERATION

Who Shall Declare God's Generation?

April 2016

“Who shall declare His generation?”

What generation is Isaiah speaking of here? It is the generation of the living. These are those who are alive in Christ, those who by His anointing can understand His Word.

Both the Old and New Testaments declare God has a generation who are going to declare His life. How are we going to do this? We are going to declare His generation by becoming what the Word says we should be.

One generation, chosen from the beginning of the ages, to become what the Bible says we are to be - - - a righteous, holy generation of people who will become like Him in every aspect of their lives.

God has a people, and great promises have been made to this people whose lives reveal their uprightness:

“This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the Lord.” Psalm 102:18

This was written for a generation, one generation. We are to become that people who praise and worship the Lord with our whole heart.

“His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.” Psalm 112:2

Who is this seed? Isaiah reveals:

“And he made His grave with the wicked, and with the rich in His death; because He had done no violence, neither was any deceit in His mouth.

Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise Him; He hath put Him to grief: when thou shalt make His soul an offering for sin, He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in His hand.” Isaiah 53:9-10

This prophecy was made 700 years before the birth of Jesus and shows

God's original plan for His creation man. He died for our sin, and it pleased the Lord to do this so He could have a seed. Who is His seed? Peter reveals God's true seed in his letter to the Galatians:

"Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ." Galatians 3:16

Those who are Christ's are His seed, or His offspring. What does this mean? It is God's anointed who will become the inheritors of His Kingdom.

"He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be My son." Revelation 21:7

The overcomers are God's anointed seed. It is the overcomers who will inherit all things. Praise the Lord!

In Isaiah 53:10, we discover God will see His seed - - - and the days of those who are in Christ will be prolonged. These are the ones who will inhabit eternity.

"A seed shall serve Him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation." Psalm 22:30

God has His chosen generation. This generation will serve Him with their whole heart, their whole soul, and with their whole strength.

"Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning: I the Lord, the first, and with the last; I am He." Isaiah 41:4

God has called His chosen generation from the beginning. These were all His morning stars and sons of God. As Peter declared:

"But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light:" I Peter 2:9
